VOLUME OF INDEXES

EXHAUSTIVE INDEXES OF NUMBERS ONE TO FIFTY-FOUR INCLUSIVE

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It is with sincere regret that we are obliged to announce the discontinuance of The Lincoln Kinsman for the duration of the war. The publication was enjoying an increasing number of subscribers and seemed to fill a very definite place in the genealogical approach to Lincolniana. A shortage of personnel in the Foundation office is primarily responsible for the temporary suspension of the bulletin.

The task of preparing an index for a publication given over largely to the printing of long genealogical tables and tracing family lines is necessarily a tedious one and if an attempt is made to publish an all inclusive index of names alone it would be prohibitive. The large number of people bearing the same surname as well as the same given name would further complicate the reference and call for generation symbols to be attached or prefixed to each citation.

There has been no attempt to list each name in the genealogical tables of the Lincolns, Hankses and cognate families where only a name appears with no historical information accompanying it. However, one will be able to approach through the rather exhaustive source of indexes almost any phase of the Lincoln family history.

The "Index to Titles" which appears first in order will allow one to locate the number designated if any single word in the titles is known. The "Index to Near Kinsman" is a departure from the usual arrangement as the relationship of the individual to the President is first noted. Associated with this reference list is an "Index to Family Groups" which cites the more prominent cognate families.

The "Index to Authors" which concludes the various index compilations will allow one to immediately find certain statements which have been made by different writers about members of the Lincoln family.

Of course one would anticipate in a genealogical bulletin a "General Index to Persons" and another "Index to Places." The people mentioned are those not included in the genealogical lists. The place list is complete as far as counties, cities, and towns are concerned. An "Index to County Court Records" will be of interest to those doing research work among the neighbors of the Lincolns. Long lists of names which appear on court records are omitted in the person index.
